

Mary Immaculate, Star of the Morning

F. W. Weatherell (1915)
Slowly, with dignity

LIEBSTER IMMANUEL. 11 10, 11 10.
Harm. J. S. BACH, 1685-1750

1. Ma - ry Im - ma - cu - late, Star of the Mor - ning cho - sen be -
2. Here in an or - bit of sha - dow and sad - ness, Vei - ling thy
3. Sin - ners, we wor - ship thy sin - less per - fec - tion; Fal - len and
4. Frail is our na - ture & strict our pro - ba - tion; Watch - ful the
5. See how the wiles of the ser - pent as - sail us, See how we
6. Bend from thy throne at the note of our cry - ing, Bend to this

1. fore the cre - a - tion be - gan, Cho - sen to bring, in the
2. splen - dor, thy course thou hast run; Now thou art thron'd in all
3. weak, for thy pi - ty we plead; Grant us the shield of thy
4. foe that would lure us to wrong; Suc - cor our souls in the
5. wai - ver and flinch in the fight: Let thine im - ma - cu - late
6. earth which thy foot - steps have trod: Stretch out thine arms to us

1. light of thy dawn - ing, Woe to the ser - pent and res - cue to man:
2. glo - ry & glad - ness, Crown'd by the hand of thy Sa - viour & Son.
3. sov' - reign pro - tec - tion; Mea - sure thine aid by the depth of our need.
4. hour of temp - ta - tion, Ma - ry Im - ma - cu - late, ten - der and strong.
5. me - rit a - vail us, Make of our weak - ness a proof of thy might.
6. li - ving & dy - ing, Ma - ry Im - ma - cu - late Mo - ther of God.